

Token-based Authentication

HMAC

(Standard) RFC 2104

For each authenticated HTTP request, the frontend computes and send a message digest that combines the user's secret and some request arguments

- ✓ User's password never transit back and forth (except the first time it is exchanged maybe)
- ✓ Digest can be send in clear