

Problem

- ➡ An attacker can execute unwanted but yet authenticated actions on a web application by either
 - setting up a malicious website with cross-origin requests
 - or by injecting malicious urls into the page

Generic solution - CSRF tokens

✓ Protect legitimate requests with a CSRF token

