

PWA

Progressive Web Applications

The idea

- A web application that can be installed on your system
- Relies on browser local storage to store the frontend (and checks for update with the server)
- Relies on Web-Workers for caching and communication